

The Changing of the Guard

Deuteronomy 31:1-8

Introduction—God has ordained leadership in the Church. Leadership which can be trusted and in which the Church has confidence. When circumstances cause transition in leadership it can create anxiety and unrest for the church body.

Big Idea—God has made a promise to His people and His promise is valid for every generation who follows the Lord.

“...the Lord is the one who goes ahead of you; He will be with you. He will not fail you or forsake you. Do not fear, or be dismayed.” - Deut 31:8

With this in mind, I share the following counsel from God’s Word:

- I. All Human Leadership Comes To An End—Deut. 31:2

- II. God’s Divine Leadership Never Ends—Deut. 31:3

- III. Confidence For The Future Is Based On God’s Faithfulness In The Past—
Deut. 31:4-5

- IV. What Then, Should Be Our Attitude Toward The Future? - Deut. 31:6

- V. What Qualities Must We Look For In A Human Leader? - Deut. 31:7

Conclusion—God wants us to be committed to and stay in His Church. In doing so, He makes us winners!

The Changing of the Guard

Deuteronomy 31:1-8

Introduction—God has ordained leadership in the Church. Leadership which can be trusted and in which the Church has confidence. When circumstances cause transition in leadership it can create anxiety and unrest for the church body.

Big Idea—God has made a promise to His people and His promise is valid for every generation who follows the Lord.

“...the Lord is the one who goes ahead of you; He will be with you. He will not fail you or forsake you. Do not fear, or be dismayed.” - Deut 31:8

With this in mind, I share the following counsel from God’s Word:

- I. All Human Leadership Comes To An End—Deut. 31:2

- II. God’s Divine Leadership Never Ends—Deut. 31:3

- III. Confidence For The Future Is Based On God’s Faithfulness In The Past—
Deut. 31:4-5

- IV. What Then, Should Be Our Attitude Toward The Future? - Deut. 31:6

- V. What Qualities Must We Look For In A Human Leader? - Deut. 31:7

Conclusion—God wants us to be committed to and stay in His Church. In doing so, He makes us winners!