

Dr. Lareau Lindquist

April 6, 2008

Sermon Title:
"The Supremacy of Submission"
Ephesians 5:15-33—6:9

Pivotal text is Eph. 5:21 which introduces a key word—"submit"

A. Firstly, submission to the Lord (to each person of the Godhead)

1. Submission to the Father (Eph. 1:4, 1:10, 4:6, Col. 1:15-20)

2. Submission to the Son, the Lord Jesus (Eph. 1:2-3, 1:10, 20-22, 2:6, Phil. 2:1-9)

3. Submission to the Holy Spirit (Eph. 5:18)

All submission must begin with this vertical submission to HIM

B. Secondly, submission to one another (Eph. 5:21) This is a general call to believers.

It is illustrated in three relationships:

1. A wife to her husband (Eph. 5:22-23)

But the call is to 'mutual submission'

2. A child to his Father (Eph. 6:1-4)

But the call is to 'mutual submission'

3. An employee to his employer (Eph. 6:5-9)

But the call is to 'mutual submission'

4. Any other?

Why the principle insists on 'mutual submission' (Eph.5:21)

Here is the secret....

Dr. Lareau Lindquist

April 6, 2008

Sermon Title:
"The Supremacy of Submission"
Ephesians 5:15-33—6:9

Pivotal text is Eph. 5:21 which introduces a key word—"submit"

A. Firstly, submission to the Lord (to each person of the Godhead)

1. Submission to the Father (Eph. 1:4, 1:10, 4:6, Col. 1:15-20)

2. Submission to the Son, the Lord Jesus (Eph. 1:2-3, 1:10, 20-22, 2:6, Phil. 2:1-9)

3. Submission to the Holy Spirit (Eph. 5:18)

All submission must begin with this vertical submission to HIM

B. Secondly, submission to one another (Eph. 5:21) This is a general call to believers.

It is illustrated in three relationships:

1. A wife to her husband (Eph. 5:22-23)

But the call is to 'mutual submission'

2. A child to his Father (Eph. 6:1-4)

But the call is to 'mutual submission'

3. An employee to his employer (Eph. 6:5-9)

But the call is to 'mutual submission'

4. Any other?

Why the principle insists on 'mutual submission' (Eph.5:21)

Here is the secret....