

SERMON NOTES AND SCRIPTURE

Hebrews 8:1–13

1 Now the main point of what we are saying is this: We do have such a high priest, who sat down at the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in heaven, 2 and who serves in the sanctuary, the true tabernacle set up by the Lord, not by a mere human being.

3 Every high priest is appointed to offer both gifts and sacrifices, and so it was necessary for this one also to have something to offer. 4 If he were on earth, he would not be a priest, for there are already priests who offer the gifts prescribed by the law. 5 They serve at a sanctuary that is a copy and shadow of what is in heaven. This is why Moses was warned when he was about to build the tabernacle: “See to it that you make everything according to the pattern shown you on the mountain.” 6 But in fact the ministry Jesus has received is as superior to theirs as the covenant of which he is mediator is superior to the old one, since the new covenant is established on better promises.

7 For if there had been nothing wrong with that first covenant, no place would have been sought for another. 8 But God found fault with the people and said:

“The days are coming, declares the Lord,
when I will make a new covenant
with the people of Israel and with the people of Judah.

9 It will not be like the covenant
I made with their ancestors
when I took them by the hand
to lead them out of Egypt,
because they did not remain faithful to my covenant,
and I turned away from them,
declares the Lord.

10 This is the covenant I will establish with the people of Israel
after that time, declares the Lord.
I will put my laws in their minds
and write them on their hearts.
I will be their God,
and they will be my people.

11 No longer will they teach their neighbor,
or say to one another, 'Know the Lord,'
because they will all know me,
from the least of them to the greatest.
12 For I will forgive their wickedness
and will remember their sins no more.”

13 By calling this covenant “new,” he has made the first one obsolete; and what is obsolete and outdated will soon disappear.

1. The New Covenant is based on a close relationship instead of a distant fear.

2. The New Covenant provides confidence and assurance instead of insecurity and uncertainty.

3. The New Covenant emphasizes forgiveness and mercy instead of failure and wrongdoing.

Two Questions:

1. How does God’s persistent pursuit of his wayward people encourage you today?

2. What does this passage reveal about the heart of God?

GROUP DISCUSSION

Please read the passage of Scripture together as a group.

How would you describe the difference between a contract and a covenant?

How do you see God’s character being the same in the Old Testament (Old Covenant) and the New Testament (New Covenant)?

Do you ever find yourself “living under the law” instead of the grace of Jesus?

Why do you suppose that after sin happened in Genesis 3, the law was ushered in, and then ultimately Jesus to fulfill the law?

How does this passage show the faithfulness of Jesus?

Spend some time as a group thanking Jesus for his faithfulness to us.
