SERMON NOTES AND SCRIPTURE

Matthew 6:9–13

9 “This, then, is how you should pray:

“Our Father in heaven,

hallowed be your name,

10 your kingdom come,

your will be done,

on earth as it is in heaven.

11 Give us today our daily bread.

12 And forgive us our debts,

as we also have forgiven our debtors.

13 And lead us not into temptation,

but deliver us from the evil one.

Hebrews 1:1–3

1 In the past God spoke to our ancestors through the prophets at many times and in various ways, 2 but in these last days he has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, and through whom also he made the universe. 3 The Son is the radiance of God’s glory and the exact representation of his being, sustaining all things by his powerful word. After he had provided purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty in heaven.

Luke 10:1–9, 22:35–38, 47–52

Revelation 19:11–16

Jesus is the one who reveals that God would rather be killed by his enemies than kill them.

GROUP DISCUSSION

Please read the passages of scripture together as a group. What are your initial thoughts as you read these?

Pastor Josh shares that Jesus calls us to a life of peace. How are you submitting your life in the way of peace? Share an example from your life this past week.

When you think of Jesus' life in the Gospels, and how you picture him as depicted in Revelation, do you picture the same character traits? How did this sermon speak to Jesus as the Lamb of God in both of those scenarios?

Share something with your group that you are wrestling with or has impacted you from this week of study.

Jesus lives a life that is faithful and true. How do you see your life being faithful and true to God? How do you see that in each other?

How can our life group pray for you this week?
